

Freedom of Information Request

- 1. What free to use substance misuse services are available to people (both men and women) in Northern Health and Social Care Trust's local authority area? Please list all the services.

Free to use substance misuse services for both men and women in the NHST include the statutory Community Addiction Service and Tier 2 services, Extern, Ascertain, Daisy and Start 360.

- 2. Are any of the services listed in question 1 female specific?

None of the above services listed are female specific services

- 3. Do any of the services listed in question 1 provide female specific spaces/programmes within a broader service? If yes please provide details of the female specific spaces/programmes offered.

The above services do not provide female specific programmes within a broader service.