- How many postnatal check ups were conducted in both Causeway Hospital and Antrim Area Hospital in each month from January 2020 to August 2020. It would be helpful if the number of birth in each setting were also given for adding context to the figures, perhaps the table below will better illustrate the information desired:

The majority of post-natal check-ups are completed by primary care and women are signposted accordingly by the Community Midwifery team in the post-natal period.
